

INSTRUCTIONS -- COMPLETING THE ACM COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AND RELEASE FOR ARTISTIC IMAGES, AUXILIARY MATERIAL, AND A/V RECORDING AND DISTRIBUTION

Thank you for submitting a paper for publication by ACM. ACM's publications are read throughout the world in print and digital formats. ACM must manage requests for reprinting, republishing, redistributing, digitizing, posting to servers, translating, anthologizing, and other actions. It is the policy of ACM to own the copyright or license on its technical publications to protect the interests of ACM, its authors and their employers, and at the same time to facilitate the appropriate reuse of this material by others. United States Copyright Law requires that the transfer of copyright of each contribution from the author to ACM be confirmed. (See ACM Publishing Policy §2.1). Note: ACM authors retain all proprietary rights other than copyright including a set of "Retained Rights" stated on the Form. (Also see the ACM Publishing Policy, §2.4, §2.5 and the Permissions Policy, §3 for further details.)

Please return the Form minus the Instructions, with the manuscript to the publication editor. The Form must be received by ACM before processing the manuscript for publication. Additional details about each Part of the Form are below.

Completing the ACM Copyright Form:

- Part I: Authors must sign and date Part I for the copyright transfer to be valid. Select Box A (and/or B if applicable for Government interest).
- Part II: Authors must select Box A to allow for A/V recording; select Box B if any auxiliary materials are included.
- Parts III & IV: Auxiliary and Third-party Materials. Complete if this paper contains materials not owned by the authors.
- Part V: Artistic Images – List those artistic images owned by the author(s) or their employers for which only permission to use is being granted.
- Part VI: Representations, Warranties and Covenants -- Authors must sign Part V.

Part I – Must be signed and dated to validate the copyright transfer.

I.A. – Assent to Assignment

If you are employed and prepared your paper as part of your job, or as a "work-made-for-hire," the rights to your paper may initially rest with your employer. If so, the Form should be signed by an authorized person. If you sign the Form, ACM assumes that you have been authorized to do so by the copyright owner.

Note: For jointly authored papers, an original signature is required from only one author acting as the authorized agent of the others. However, we recommend that all authors read and agree to the terms of the Form.

I.B. – Declaration of Government Employment (Does not apply to State Government-funded employee/authors)

Check only Box B of Part I of the Form if all authors are national Government employees, and the work was created as part of their job exclusively for a Government agency. A statement of "public domain" will appear on the work submitted (the "Work") if it is not copyrightable. If any co-authors are not government employees, Box A of Part I must also be checked, and a modified copyright statement regarding government use will appear in the publication.

For authors employed by a civilian agency working under a National Government contract, i.e., a national laboratory or other federally-funded research institution, you must check both Box A and Box B of Part I and identify the agency and country. ACM recognizes the Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the Work for official Government purposes.

Part II and Part III – Permissions: Sign as appropriate.

ACM requires a signed release (rather than a transfer of copyright) to make and distribute audio/video recordings of speaker presentations. Please select Box in Part II to allow recording if applicable.

ACM also requires a signed release to serve auxiliary materials, i.e. additional files, including software and executables that are not submitted for review as an integral part of the work but are supplied by the author as useful and interesting resources for the reader (collectively, the "Auxiliary Materials"). Please also select Box in Part III if you are supplying Auxiliary Materials.

Part IV – Third Party Material (See instructions at <http://www.acm.org/publications/publications/third-party-material>)

If you have incorporated any material owned by a third party in your Work or into your Auxiliary Material, you must fill out Part IV of the Form and attach proof of permission to include this material in publication.

Part V – Artistic Images of Independent Value

If your paper includes images that were created for any purpose other than this paper and to which you or your employer wish to retain copyright, you must complete Part IV and be sure to include a notice of copyright with each such image in the paper.

Part VI – Representations, Warranties and Covenants: Everyone must sign Part VI.

ACM COPYRIGHT FORM AND A/V, AUXILIARY MATERIALS RELEASETitle of Work (the “Work”): _____Publication Name: _____Author/Presenter(s): _____Auxiliary Materials (provide filenames and a description of auxiliary content, if any, for display in the ACM Digital Library. The description may be provided as a ReadMe file): _____I. COPYRIGHT TRANSFER (THIS SECTION MUST BE SIGNED AND DATED; CHECK “A” OR “B” AS APPROPRIATE)

Copyright to the Work and to any supplemental files integral to the Work which are submitted with it for publication (such as an extended proof, a PowerPoint outline, or appendices that may exceed a printed page limit), including without limitation, the right to publish the Work in whole or in part in any and all forms of media, now or hereafter known, is hereby transferred to the ACM (for Government work, to the extent transferable -see Part I. B. below) effective as of the date of this agreement, on the understanding that the Work has been or will be accepted for publication by ACM.

I understand that under the ACM Copyright Transfer Agreement, authors always hold the following rights:

Retained Rights and Permitted Uses

- (a) All rights and permissions the author has not granted to ACM are reserved to the Owner, including all other proprietary rights such as patent or trademark rights.
- (b) Furthermore, notwithstanding the exclusive rights the Owner has granted to ACM, Owner shall have the right to do the following:
 - (i) Reuse any portion of the Work, without fee, in any future works written or edited by the Author, including books, lectures and presentations in any and all media.
 - (ii) Create a “Major Revision” which is wholly owned by the author
 - (iii) Post the Accepted Version of the Work on (1) the Author’s home page, (2) the Owner’s institutional repository, or (3) any repository legally mandated by an agency funding the research on which the Work is based, and (4) any non-commercial repository or aggregation that does not duplicate ACM tables of contents, i.e., whose patterns of links do not substantially duplicate an ACM-copyrighted volume or issue. Non-commercial repositories are here understood as repositories owned by non-profit organizations that do not charge a fee for accessing deposited articles and that do not sell advertising or otherwise profit from serving articles.
 - (iv) Post an “Author-Izer” link enabling free downloads of the Version of Record in the ACM Digital Library on (1) the Author’s home page or (2) the Owner’s institutional repository;
 - (v) Prior to commencement of the ACM peer review process, post the version of the Work as submitted to ACM (“Submitted Version” or any earlier versions) to non-peer reviewed servers;
 - (vi) Make free distributions of the final published Version of Record internally to the Owner’s employees, if applicable;
 - (vii) Make free distributions of the published Version of Record for Classroom and Personal Use;
 - (viii) Bundle the Work in any of Owner’s software distributions; and
 - (ix) Use any Auxiliary Material independent from the Work.

Authors should understand that consistent with ACM’s policy of encouraging dissemination of information, each work published by ACM appears with the ACM copyright and the following notice:

“Permission to make digital or hard copies of part or all of this work for personal or classroom use is granted without fee provided that copies are not made or distributed for profit or commercial advantage and that copies bear this notice and the full citation on the first page. Copyrights for components of this work owned by others than ACM must be honored. Abstracting with credit is permitted. To copy otherwise, to republish, to post on servers or to redistribute to lists, requires prior specific permission and/or a fee.”

A. Assent to Assignment - I hereby represent and warrant that I am the sole owner (or authorized agent of the copyright owner(s)), with the exception of third party material detailed in Section III below. I have obtained permission for any third-party material included in the Work.

B. Declaration for Government Work - I am an employee of the National Government of my country and my Government claims rights to this work, or it is not copyrightable. (Government work is classified as Public Domain in U.S. only. Do not check Box B if you are a State employee. Do not check Box B if your research was only funded by an agency of the Government, unless required to do so as a grant recipient or direct contractor.)

If either you or a co-author is a contractor of the National Government, Check both Boxes “A” and “B.” A modified copyright statement regarding government use will appear on the published work.

Name of National Government Agency and Country: _____

If not the United States or Canada, does your country claim copyright in this work? _____ If “No”, make sure Box “A” is also checked.

II. PERMISSION FOR A/V RECORDING

Audio / Video Release (for conference presentations and video interviews)

I hereby grant permission for ACM to include my name, likeness, presentation and comments in any and all forms, for the Conference and/or Publication.

I further grant permission for ACM to record and/or transcribe and reproduce my presentation as part of the ACM Digital Library, and to distribute the same for sale in complete or partial form as part of an ACM product on CD-ROM, DVD, webcast, USB device, streaming video or any other media format now or hereafter known.

Accordingly, I give ACM the right to use my image, voice, pronouncements, likeness, and my name, and any biographical material submitted by me, in connection with the Conference and/or Publication, whether used in excerpts or in full, for distribution described above and for any associated advertising or exhibition.

III. PERMISSION FOR AUXILIARY MATERIALS

Auxiliary Materials [Defined as additional files, including software, video and executables that are not submitted for review and publication as an integral part of the Work but are supplied by the author as useful resources for the reader.]

I hereby grant ACM permission to serve files from the ACM Digital Library containing my Auxiliary Material. I hereby represent and warrant that my Auxiliary Material contains no malicious code, virus, trojan horse or other software routines or hardware components designed to permit unauthorized access or to disable, erase or otherwise harm any computer systems or software.

___ I agree to the above Auxiliary Materials permission statement.

___ The software is knowingly designed to illustrate techniques intended to defeat a system’s security. The code has been explicitly documented to state this fact.

IV. THIRD-PARTY MATERIAL

Copyright. This copyright transfer applies only to the Work as a whole, not to any embedded objects owned by third parties. An author who embeds an object, such as an art image that is copyrighted by a third party, must obtain that party's permission to include the object, with the understanding that the entire Work may be distributed as a unit in any medium. The requirement to obtain third-party permission does not apply if the author embeds only a link to the copyright holder's definitive version of the object. (See Policy §3.7 Links and INSTRUCTIONS at <http://www.acm.org/publications/third-party-material>.)

Permission. In the event that any materials used in my paper or Auxiliary Materials contain the work of third-party individuals or organizations (including copyrighted music or movie excerpts or anything not owned by me), I understand that it is my responsibility to secure any necessary permissions and/or licenses.¹ Third-party permission must be clearly stated in the figure caption or near the object(s) in the text narrative in the Work, and my presentation of it and in Auxiliary Materials as applicable.

Identify below any third-party material included in the Work, presentation and/or the Auxiliary Materials. Please specify the type of material being used, i.e., figure, table, photo, music, video or code. When the permission is obtained, attach it to this form. The Work will not be published without proof of the necessary permissions or substantiation of a claim of fair use. (Use a separate sheet if additional space is required.)

V. ARTISTIC IMAGES

An exception to copyright transfer is allowed for Artistic images or figures in your paper which have "independent artistic value." You or your employer may retain copyright to the Artistic images or figures which you created for some purpose other than to illustrate a point in this paper and you wish to exploit in other contexts.

If you have such Artistic images, you must grant permission to ACM to use them in the context of the article in current and future formats. You must identify them here and also in the paper by including the owner's copyright notice within the image itself and/or in its figure caption.

- (a) Owner is the sole owner or authorized agent of Owner(s) of the Work;
- (b) The undersigned is authorized to enter into this Agreement and grant the rights included in this license to ACM;
- (c) The Work is original and does not infringe the rights of any third party; all permissions for use of third-party materials consistent in scope and duration with the rights granted to ACM have been obtained, copies of such permissions have been provided to ACM, and the Work as submitted to ACM clearly and accurately indicates the credit to the proprietors of any such third-party materials (including any applicable copyright notice), or will be revised to indicate such credit;
- (d) The Work has not been published except for informal postings on non-peer reviewed servers, and Owner covenants to use best efforts to place ACM DOI pointers on any such prior postings;
- (e) The Auxiliary Materials, if any, contain no malicious code, virus, trojan horse or other software routines or hardware components designed to permit unauthorized access or to disable, erase or otherwise harm any computer systems or software; and
- (f) The Artistic Images, if any, are clearly and accurately noted as such (including any applicable copyright notice) in the Submitted Version.

I agree to the terms of this Section V.
